

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have demonstrated true value as citizens through the excellence of their pursuits in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Hugo and Carol Jean “Jeannie” Kramme have been lifelong residents of Dittmer, where they have enjoyed longstanding involvement with Saint Martin’s United Church of Christ since Hugo’s confirmation in 1945 and Jeannie’s confirmation in 1948; and

Whereas, Hugo and Jeannie Kramme have developed and maintained exceptional reputations for their activities with such Shannondale Community Center projects as the craft center, improvement of the grounds and buildings, and a canoe camp for youth; and for their once-a-week endeavors at the Peace Pantry, where they distribute food to those who depend upon it for survival; and

Whereas, Jeannie Kramme also deserves commendation for her tutoring as part of the OASIS program, which helps children accomplish more with class work, and her church leadership as Council president with her husband joyfully at her side to help with the Learning Center, increase stability, keep financial books balanced, publish the “Echo” on time, provide assistance to families who approach the church in times of emergency, and keep the business of the church running smoothly; and

Whereas, Hugo and Jeannie Kramme have been blessed with the love of a wonderful family whose members include their three children, David of Carl Junction, Donna of Houston, Texas, and Gary of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; two daughters-in-law, Denise and Jenny; a son-in-law, Dave; grandchildren, April, Bill, Sara, Craig, and Cassie; Jeannie’s sister, Marilyn, and brother-in-law, Warren Viehland of Union; Jeannie’s brother, Neal, and sister-in-law, Jane Weber of Carterville, Illinois; and Hugo’s sister, Hazel Kasmar of Saint Louis; sister, Florence, and brother-in-law, Vernon Scharinghausen of Union; and brother, Leroy, and sister-in-law, Joan Kramme, of Dittmer:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to bid a fond farewell to Hugo and Jeannie Kramme upon relocating from their longtime hometown of Dittmer to a new residence in southwest Missouri and to convey to them this legislative body’s deepest gratitude for their impressive record of involvement in the Dittmer community and our best wishes for continued citizenship achievement in their new location; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Hugo and Carol Jean Kramme, formerly of Dittmer, Missouri.
